

THE MAKING OF A MODERN MEMOIR

Lecture by author Myrna Katz Frommer

reception celebrating the publication of

ALWAYS UP FRONT

THE MEMOIRS OF HELEN FRIED KIRSHBLUM GOLDSTEIN

MYRNA KATZ FROMMER

is the co-author of the oral histories It Happened in the Catskills, It Happened in Brooklyn, Growing Up Jewish in America, It Happened on Broadway and It Happened in Manhattan. Her articles, many of which focus on Jewish history, life and culture throughout the world, have appeared in Haaretz, the New York Times, Mainstream, the Forward, Jewish Women in America, and the Jewish Monthly. She has a PhD in communications and is a professor in the Masters of Liberal Studies program at Dartmouth.

You and a guest are invited to attend

THE MAKING OF A MODERN MEMOIR

A rare behind-the-scenes look at the writing of a memoir by noted writer and oral historian

MYRNA KATZ FROMMER

including discussions and sample recordings of conversations from her latest book

ALWAYS UP FRONT

THE MEMOIRS OF HELEN FIELD KERSHBAUM GOLDSTEIN

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2005

6:30 - 9:30 pm Lecture, Reception & Book Signing

Jewish Theological Seminary

3080 Broadway at 122nd Street
New York, NY

Directions: www.jtsa.edu/about/visit.shtml

RSVP:

Amy Gotzenberg

agotzenberg@phoenix.org

212/207-1999 ext 209